

AGM Board of Directors Report

Introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Rashad Chin, Emergency Physician Royal College Specialty Emergency Medicine Fellowship Associate Clinical Professor, University of Alberta MSc Disaster Medicine (EMDM)</li> <li>• CMAT volunteer since 2010</li> <li>• BOD –Response Coordinator since 2012</li> </ul>
Role &amp; Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Strategic deployment planning</li> <li>• Presenting potential team members to BOD for approval in pre-deployment phase</li> <li>• Optimizing preparedness for potential deployment</li> <li>• Standing member of board for voting issues</li> </ul>
Key Accomplishments from the AGM/Past Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Haiyan Deployment –contributed with pre-deployment team selection, and as volunteer on the ground</li> <li>• Development for comprehensive deployment organizational and communication document for real-time deployment use</li> <li>• Completed Master’s Thesis / Scientific Article on 2010 Haiti Deployment –Pending publication</li> </ul>
Key areas of focus for the Upcoming Year	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>–Coordinating New CMAT responder uniforms including distribution protocol</li> <li>–Standardizing deployment packs for rapid deployment and functional on-the-ground use.</li> <li>–On going work with new web platform and database development with the help of M. K.</li> <li>–Analyzing Haiyan Data for future deployment strategies.</li> <li>– Development of triplicate disaster chart (ongoing)</li> </ul>
Opportunities for Volunteer Involvement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Looking for 2 volunteers from each for Vancouver/ Toronto area to assist with developing and executing deployment packs</li> </ul>
Questions	